

Michael A. Pierotti

August 16, 1956 - September 13, 2018

SCHENECTADY - Michael A. Pierotti, 62 of Harborside Dr, passed away peacefully at home surrounded by his loving family on Thursday, September 13, 2018 after a long and courageous battle with Neuroendocrine Tumor.

Mike was born in Schenectady on August 16, 1956, son of Ernest and Sarah Borini Pierotti. He graduated from Linton High School class of 1974 and attended HVCC and Union College. He was employed at St. Clare's Hospital as a biomedical engineer and subsequently became their facilities manager. His most recent employment was with Johnson Controls and CBRE.

Mike was a gifted musician and woodworker. He enjoyed golfing, fishing, traveling and snorkeling.

He is survived by his cherished fiancée, Marilyn Tralongo, of Schenectady; adoring daughters, Sara Pierotti and her husband, David Smith and Christina Pierotti and her husband, Andrew Donnelly, all of Scotia; his devoted parents, Ernie and Sarah Pierotti, of Glenville; loving brothers; Rick (Trisha) Pierotti, of Leland, NC; and Jim Pierotti, of Buffalo; nephew, Dante Pierotti and niece Demitria Pierotti; great-nephew, Gavin Pierotti; the loving and supportive Pierotti and Tralongo families; and many special friends.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend a Mass which will be con-celebrated on Saturday at 11 am at St. Anthony's Church, 331 Seward Place.

For those wishing, memorial contributions in Mike's memory may be made to Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center at <https://givingmskcc.org>.

“ My condolences to Mike’s family and friends. I had the pleasure of having Mike work for me on the Key Bank account for CBRE. In the face of a difficult customer and a serious health condition, Mike navigated his responsibilities admirably and with exemplary performance and positive attitude. Mike was a nice man and we connected more importantly on a personal level. He fought hard for life and those he loved. I will remember him always.
